PARTIES: LibertyCon loves parties, but some people do not like room parties next door to them. To accommodate those who wish to party all night, as well as those who actually want to sleep, LibertyCon is specifying that ONLY certain sections of the Choo-Choo will be used for parties. All other areas in the hotel will be considered "QUIET AREAS." To hold a party, you must first have a confirmed reservation at the Choo-Choo and then you must contact Brandy Spraker at bspraker@LibertyCon.org to request a "PARTY ROOM". The drinking age in Tennessee is 21 and all party hosts are required to observe Tennessee laws. We are making a special request of the hosts of room parties this year. "Please card anyone receiving alcoholic beverages at your party!"

PEACE BONDED WEAPONS POLICY: LibertyCon believes that fans are mature and responsible people. Therefore, weapons are permitted but they must be peace bonded at all times. The only exceptions to this policy are Masquerade Presentations, Programming and Hucksters displaying their wares. LibertyCon Security Forces will peace bond your weapons for you at the registration desk

LIBERTYCON 25's CHARITY: The LibertyCon 25 Charity has not been chosen as of this date. As soon as it is selected, we will be advertising it in future publications.
